Lsp

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY

CIVIL APPELLATE JURISDICTION

CIVIL APPLICATION NO.4030 of 2007
in
FIRST APPEAL NO.1897 of 2007

Chhabutai Gulabrao Mane ...Applicant

Versus

Gulabrao Digambar Mane ...Respondent

Mr. A.M.Kulkarni for the Applicant
Mr. M.M.Sathye for the Respondent

CORAM:- Anoop V.Mohta, J

DATED:- 10th September, 2007.

P.C.

. While passing the decree, the Court has negated the case of the Plaintiff that the defendant is obstructing and interfering in the possession of the suit land. However, by this application i.e. Civil Application No.4030 of 2007, the applicant has sought interim relief to restrain the opponents and its agents from obstructing or interefering with the possession and or enjoyment of the Suit land. Considering the fact that this Court has already granted Civil Application no. 2961 of 2007 in terms of prayer clause (a) and at this stage of the proceedings, pending the disposal of the first appeal, it is necessary for both parties to maintain status-quo.

2. Resultantly, the present Civil Application is disposed off with order that parties to maintain status-quo as of today of possession, pending the disposal of the first appeal.

3. Civil Application is disposed off accordingly.

(Anoop V. Mohta,J)